

BDO SOUTH AUSTRALIA

PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE NETWORK

Overview

IDEAS | PEOPLE | TRUST

We understand that it is not always easy to keep abreast of change and provide your clients with all the resources they need to grow. That's why we have developed the BDO professional practice network (PPN) to help accounting firms with their specialist needs.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Online resources and newsletters

We have a closed LinkedIn Group dedicated to our PPN members. As a member, you can log on for information on tax, human resources, superannuation and more.

BDO send PPN updates to members to keep you abreast of changes and updated on relevant issues that have an impact on your clients.

We will also send you copies of regular publications that focus on issues that are relevant in business.

The regular updates may include:

- ▶ Accounting & Assurance E-updates
- ▶ Superannuation Updates
- ▶ Corporate & International Tax technical updates
- ▶ Regular Newsletters: including Growing business, family business and private wealth.

Accessing BDO facilities

BDO have meeting & boardroom facilities in Adelaide and McLaren Vale and across Australia.

If you are looking for a place away from your office to meet with clients, hold a board meeting or internal planning session, we may be able to help.

Simply let us know your needs and we will check availability on your behalf.

Members of the Professional Practice Network can also subscribe to our internal training for an additional cost. This allows you and your staff to access training sessions each month addressing special topics and detailing the latest legislative changes.

1 attendee: $60pp (ex GST), per session.

2 or more attendees: $50pp (ex GST), per session.

Annual fee, up front payment: $590pp (ex GST) for 11 sessions.

BDO's technical advice fee policy

There is no joining fee, nor is there an annual subscription fee for the BDO Professional Practice Network membership. Technical advice services include:

- ▶ 2 hours of ad hoc advice that doesn't require technical research or written advice for the year
- ▶ For those who want regular technical support we are offering packages of advice hours at 15% off the usual hourly rate for PPN members only
- ▶ For complex issues requiring indepth tailored business advice a fee will be agreed with you
- ▶ You will continue to receive access to the monthly BDO tax training at the unchanged discounted rates.

Referral policy

BDO undertakes not to directly contact any client referred by a Professional Practices Network (PPN) member in respect to other services and will not attempt to attract such clients away from a PPN member. We will not knowingly initiate contact with or undertake work for any clients of a PPN member.

The BDO advantage

BDO has a well-established history of working closely with smaller firms, often in partnership, on client assignments. As a result, we have developed a strong understanding of the particular needs of smaller practices. Importantly for our members, we provide direct access to our professional specialist teams that have experience dealing with complex client issues on a daily basis.
